

AP English Literature
OOCM the Penultimate

1. Reflections on the test you took. Where are the strengths? Where are places to improve? How can the teacher help you? What should you study/practice?

2. Complete the sample essay on the Alice Walker short story, p. 167.

3. Your task for over Easter break is to complete another full-length test. Your first grade in Q4 is to turn in for score one of the six essays you will have produced from the two full-length tests. This essay will be due April 9. You are on your honor to turn in the essay as you wrote it, but you get to choose which essay you turn in.

4. For the next meeting, you should amass folders for the various works you have read that are AP worthy. Let's brainstorm a list on the board and make some assignments to review the works. I will have a template for you next time to fill in key information you can use on the test.

5. The last AP OOCM will be _____.