

English 9
Frankenstein SQ Checklist

The basics

Name
Assignment label (which reading, which SQ)
Written in pen
Double spaced

Meeting the assignment

Has the student chosen a question ambitious enough to be answered in a paragraph?
Does the paragraph squarely answer the question in its topic sentence?
Is the answer developed with specific evidence from the text?
 use of short, frequent quotations and maybe also some paraphrasing cited properly in MLA 9

Composition skills

Is the sequence of information coherent? That is, is the reader oriented enough to be able to follow what's offered?
Is the answer sufficiently detailed and nuanced?
Are passages short and sufficiently blended into surrounding text using signal phrases?

Usage

Piece doesn't commit the "Unlucky 13" common errors
Standard, basic conventions of academic writing are observed paragraphing
 capitalization